		Some Notes on Occupations
		A "Pauper" just means that the person has no independent means of support other than their family (or from Poor Law Relief)
		A "Journeyman" is someone who has served an apprenticeship and is considered competent at their occupation and could be hired out usually on a day basis
		A "Master" is someone who had their own business, and also perhaps had apprentices and may have employed journeymen
		An "Annuitant" is someone in receipt of a grant or pension
		A "Charwoman" is generally a cleaner but could include other menial tasks (often a cheaper alternative to a live-in servant)
